Round like a circle in a spiral,
like a wheel within a wheel,
never ending or beginning on an ever spinning reel.

Carolina Wesleyan College
Rocky Mount, North Carolina 27801

18930

Like a snowball down a mountain
or a carnival balloon,

Like a carousel that's turning,
running rings around the moon.

Like a tunnel that you follow to a tunnel of its own, down a hollow to a cavern where the sun has never shone.

Like a door that keeps revolving in a half forgotten dream, or the ripples from a pebble someone tosses in a stream.
Like a clock whose hands are sweeping past the minutes of its face, and the world is like an apple whirling silently in space.

Like the circles that you find in the windmills of your mind!
Keep that jingle in your pocket,
words that jingle in your head,
why did summer go so quickly?
was it something that you said?

Lovers walk along a shore and leave their footprints in the sand.

Is the sound of distant drumming
just the fingers of your hand?
Pictures hanging in a hallway
and the fragment of a song,
half remembered names and faces,
but to whom do they belong?

When you knew that it was over you were suddenly aware that the autumn leaves were turning to the color of her hair.

Like a circle in a spiral, like a wheel within a wheel, never ending or beginning on an ever spinning reel, as the images unwind like the circles that you find in the Windmills of Your Mind!

ADMINISTRATION
and FACULTY

Administration

Dr. Thomas A Collins
President

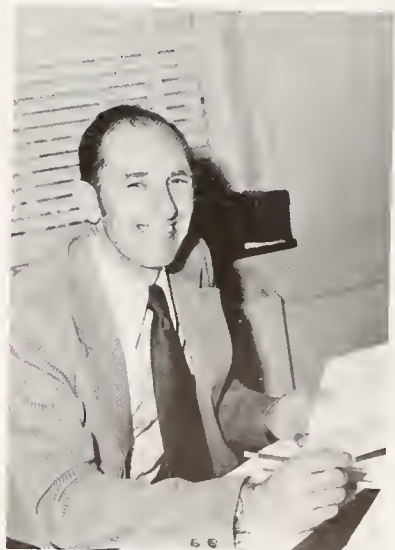

The president of any organization must assume ultimate responsibility for the entire operation—it's successes and it's failures. It has been said that the president of a college must be the "lengthened shadow of that college". Therefore it appears to me that the president of Wesleyan must make certain that capable and responsible individuals plan and supervise the educational growth and development of the college; that he and his associates arrange for adequate financial support and still find time to dream great dreams for the college and then share excitement of that dream with the campus so that it may come true.

The position of acting academic dean has afforded me some new insights into the world of a college program. It's one thing to be a faculty person but it's quite different when it comes to the operation of an entire faculty as well as the student body.

The Dean of Students is; at various times, a sheriff, psychiatrist, janitor, executioner, target, intermediary, advisor, counselor, peacemaker, administrator, and friend. Often the greatest rewards are not realized until months or years later when former students return to the campus as parents, businessmen, teachers, lawyers, dentists—as mature, responsible, concerned, and contributing members of society. That's when you recognize what this business of higher education should really be about.

Dr. Raymond Bauer, Acting Academic Dean and Director of Athletics

Floyd Sawyer, Comptroller

As the chief financial officer of a small liberal arts college my main pleasure is working with students and their financial problems. I also enjoy seeing students mature during their stay at Wesleyan and I particularly delight in seeing them graduate.

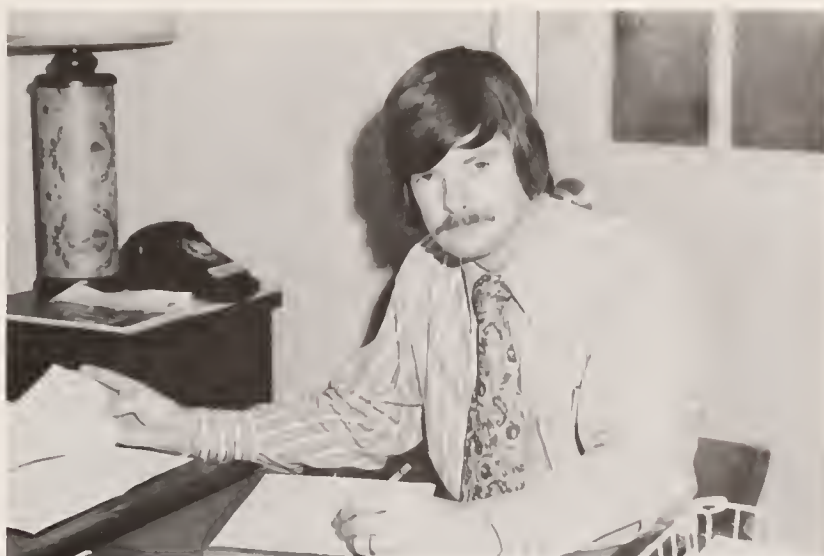

Robert Maxwell, Dean of Students

The tasks of the office of the Dean of Students are many. They range from taking care of honors, assisting in printing the Bishop's L.A.W., and supervising orientation, to helping new students in adjusting to campus life. I feel however, that the students' greatest need is filled by the little things that we do. This job entails more than helping students take advantage of what Wesleyan offers academically, it involves providing an atmosphere in which students can learn more about living with their fellow men, thereby finding their niche in life.

Sarah Alexander, Assistant Dean of Students

William Garlow, Registrar and Director of Admissions

As Director of Student Aid I have to file appropriate applications and reports to agencies such as the federal government who supply a majority of student aid. And I feel that the job and what I do is important because about 35% of our students are receiving financial aid and most of these students would not be able to attend without it. As director of placement I think we are providing some good, current, and usable information in jobs and post-educational material for our own students. And I'm somewhat disappointed by the lack of participation by the majority of seniors.

As Registrar and Director of Admissions my relationship with students begins before they enter Wesleyan and usually does not end when they leave or graduate. Even though this causes my role to be very broad in nature I feel that service to the student is my most important function.

Alvin Horne, Director of Financial Aid

Dr. Joseph MacPherson, Librarian

Roger Taylor, Admissions Counselor

I find that my position as Admissions Counselor at North Carolina Wesleyan has been a valuable experience, in that it has afforded me an opportunity for exploration—exploration of people and places. Thus, my job has proved to enlighten as well as intensify my perspective, all of which for me, is another important and necessary step towards reaching maturity.

Mary Lang
Admissions Counselor

As a private college admissions counselor, I find my tasks have been more difficult because of our rapid changing society. Even with innovative and forward looking programs, Wesleyan is like other private institutions finding their product harder to market due to rising cost and declining interest for a liberal arts education.

J.W.E. Joyner
Director of Public Relations

In essence, the role of a public relations officer is to present the vitality and vigor of the student body and the college to the general public through the use of all media possible—newspapers, television, radio, alumni newsletters and information bulletins. We attempt to utilize every avenue leading to this goal—to inform the public both regionally and distant about Wesleyan College.

Lynda Homes
Assistant Director of Public Relations

Faculty

Corbitt Rushing
Political Science

Rick Watson—A reverse oreo cookie. One who takes the world seriously without being a “serious” person. Or, more admirably, takes the world more seriously than he takes himself.

Mack Sturgill is the campus cosmopolitan . . . His knowledge of geography—most gained from personal observation—is awesome. And, if ever a man was a born linguist, Mack is.

Don Scalf
Physical Education

Jack Teagarden—Really, underneath the Spanish cape and beret there is a health nut who swims at least a mile per day.

Frances Harrison is one of the most outstanding people I’ve known. She is well versed in her discipline and has the ability to convey this knowledge to others. She is personally interested in her students and truly puts them first in her teaching. As a matter of fact, this appears to be her philosophy of life—putting others first . . . If I had to choose just one adjective to describe her it would be sincere.

Edgar Stryker
Music

If you want to know about Allen Johnson, ask Teagarden. From him you’ll hear only praise of Johnson’s scholarship, magnificence of teaching and humor. And, after all, those men have spent many periods together—here and abroad!

Ken Finney
History

Arthur McCoy seems in some ways to be a hangover from a bygone era. His great interest in jazz and the “Big Band” era is reflected in his attitudes towards his own band.

Jean Edge—enthusiastically dedicated to her work and to her students; she possesses a generous heart!

William Kilgore—“I must go down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky; and all I ask for is a tall ship and a star to steer her by.”

Gary Martin
Economics

David Jones—The mouth of the South!

William Sasser—A Beethoven come lately.

Henry Funderburk—The Education Department’s Jim Hailey.

Arthur McCoy—Mr. Smooth of the music department. Has an air of confidence and hope for the future of his students.

Edward Wiltrakis—A demon on the golf course! (but not off!)

Dr. James R. Hailey, Religion Chaplain

William Sasser—He has a wonderful wife, wonderful boys and a wonderful house—and they fit him! (Obviously I'm one of his fans!)

Ralph James—I'll never eat another M & M as long as I live.

"Thanks, Mississippi." Jim Purser is the pal I'd most like to hunt gold in the Yukon with.

Frances Harrison—The square root of wonderful.

Michael Pratt—Mr. Pratt seems to relate to the students and his basketball players in a knowledgeable manner. He is understanding and is a motivating instructor.

Dr. Bernard Kane
Biology

His sameness, friendliness, and devotion to students and to teaching and ability to relate to others in any situation make John Davis a favorite person on the N.C.W.C. campus.

Ray Brackett—Jane's husband.

Frank Haggard—Here is a uniquely qualified church historian, an authentic thirteenth-century man: he combines the mind of Thomas Aquinas with the spirit of St. Francis.

Vance Mizelle
English

Mack Sturgill—A few moments with Mack will convince you that Santa Claus is Spanish . . . or at least he knows the language.

Dr. Ralph James
Religion and Philosophy

Gary Martin—A humanitarian economist—a rare and welcome phenomenon.

Madeline Nevins—Personally, good-natured, cheerful, charming, both very direct with people while being very sensitive to them as persons at the same time. Intellectual, bright, knowledgeable, incisive, with the ability to see to the heart of the matter.

David Jones
History

Lionel Bishop—Wesleyan's tee-totaling Beau Brummel.

Dr. John S. Davis
Music

Henry Funderburk has a new educational philosophy for the twentieth century; first you get the wagons in a circle . . .

Corbitt Rushing—"Bully"—the reincarnation of "Teddy" Roosevelt.

Dr. Rexford Tucker
Religion and Sociology

The courtly Southern gentleman of the English department: that's Vance Mizelle. If he ever hurt anyone, it was an accident. On stage and off, he's perfectly ingratiating. And the things he knows about our language!

Dr. Jane Ranney
Psychology

James Hailey—the only person who really knows where Moses parked his jeep.

Don Scalf's qualities of sincerity, sameness, understanding, self-control, wit and dependability make him an ideal person with whom to work. His interests in his discipline and his students blend to make teaching more than a job to him; rather, it dictates his life style. Actually, he could use a raise in salary!

Edward Hester—serious, intense, good-humored, down to earth.

Bernard Kane—an enthusiastic person who strives to teach through example as well as through subject matter. An alive personality.

Dr. Wilde is an educator who is highly respected across the state of North Carolina. Every time I tell someone that I teach at Wesleyan College he says "Oh, you work with Sim Wilde, don't you?" Not only is he an all-round good guy; he keeps his office immaculate.

Dr. Allen S. Johnson, History, Chairman of the Social Science Division

Arthur Adams—widely read, with a curious, inquiring mind, a genuine scholar who is also witty, urbane, altogether delightful—a true "gentleman and scholar."

Edward Brandt—Population control and genetics is his "bag"—a vital commitment to where the human species is going.

Jack Moore—He has a dry pokerfaced humor that often catches me unaware.

Jimmie Purser—Excellent sportsman.

Edgar Stryker—a very talented pianist, an unusually dedicated teacher who never blows his own horn. Still water runs deep.

Richard Kagey
Theatre

Arch Sharer—A true naturalist—his concern for nature has permeated his entire life style.

Sim Wilde—imaginative and creative.

Lionel Bishop—You'll never believe the story about the shirt! I hardly do myself.

Richard Watson
History

Ray Brackett—Here's a shy, self-effacing man whom in his quiet way allies himself with the forces for radical change in education. His continual crusades against pornography and the open discussion of "indelicate" sexual matters have made his belief in modesty an inspiration to all.

Arthur Admas—A renaissance man.

William Kilgore—a fellow all the students should get to know. A facade of academic seriousness masks a real "swinger".

George Armstrong
Humanities

Jean Edge
Physical Education

Jane Ranney—a staggering intellect—almost scary—and a real flash on the badminton court.

Gary Martin—A refreshingly new face. He should be widely used as a faculty consultant to student causes. Willing to put in the time and energy to do the job.

Everybody needs a Ray Brackett. Otherwise one might run off giggling into the gardens and murmuring how lovely it all is. Ray is a kind of antidote to that.

Kenneth Finney—an historian with stamina, necessary for teaching at Wesleyan.

Dr. J. William Kilgore
Chemistry and Physics

Bernard Kane—a dynamic interest in man and his environment. Open, friendly but not much sympathy for the "goof-off" types—after all life isn't a free ride.

Dr. Jack Teagarden, English
Chairman of the Humanities Division

Arthur Adams
German

Corbitt Rushing—A man deeply devoted to the ascetic tradition of his church who fervently campaigns against all profanity and back-sliding. Politically, he has made an interesting synthesis of anarchism and the divine right of kings which he uses in his invectives against the effete epigones of the New Deal.

Jean Edge—More people like her would make Wesleyan and the world better.

Arthur Adams—knows how to capitalize on lost causes: Nazism, Hitler, the Modern Language Department.

Dr. William Sasser
Music

Jean Edge, Play Girl—loves life, loves people, loves Wesleyan. I love Jean Edge!

William Sasser—His "white tie and tails" piano concerts give Wesleyan a badly needed touch of elegance.

Richard Kagey seems to have been in theater ("theatre," he insists—his only affectation) for two hundred years. Yet he masquerades as a very young man. He has fooled even the census-takers. But nobody that young has amassed that much knowledge of, and that much experience in, the theater. Incidentally, prompt him to do dialects. You'll howl with laughter, but you'll also recognize that he has exactly rendered enunciations and inflections.

James Hailey—He's always cheerful and outgoing—even at the crack of dawn.

Dr. Theresa Vaughan
Mathematics, Part time

Allen Johnson—one of our best rounded professors—the closest thing that Wesleyan has to a "man for all seasons."

Lionel Bishop—Bright, visionary, dedicated, committed, concerned about student welfare.

Jack Teagarden—a modern St. George who attacks the dragon of illiteracy with Shakespeare in one hand and Milton in the other.

Helen Matthews—Helen is the kind of person who should teach everyone in the first grade. She is warm and friendly and probably looks at everyone as if she were their mother. She has a big heart and tends to respond to people and situations with her heart before her head. I like that in people.

Dr. Jack Moore
Religion and Philosophy

Dr. Arch Sharer, Biology
Chairman of the Science Division

Madeline Nevins—A dedicated Ultramontanist whose staunch and heroic stand against an insidious "Aggiornimento" have earned her many papal accolade. Her colleagues treasure her for her constant espousal of "a woman's place is in the home" philosophy.

18930

Madeline Nevins
French

Ralph James—The most convincing man I have ever known. He would have been a very successful missionary since he has the ability to prove the worth of most anything. He has several times sold me on an idea . . . and he did it through his ability to lay out the logic and then, convince me it was right. Perhaps he should have been a salesman.

Sim Wilde—perhaps the hardest working member of the faculty.

Bruce Van Blarcum—So enthusiastic and hard working he makes me feel old!

Edward Brandt
Biology

John Davis has got to be one of the friendliest men on this campus! He doesn't seem to "choose" his friends which seem to include EVERYBODY. His tremendous assets as a musician and teacher include many fine qualities often found in others, but only rarely so concentrated in the same individual.

Michael Pratt
Physical Education

Henry Funderburk is a professional educator in that he is well informed and strives to keep abreast with trends and changes.

Vance Mizelle—always speaks with his heart in his mouth.

Richard Kagey—Good humor raised to the level of the sublime.

David Jones—The boy wonder.

Allen Johnson—Intellect can be graceful.

Jane Ranney—Ray's wife.

Edgar Stryker—He is not a reticent man, but neither does he "trumpet" his opinions and attitudes. He brings to mind such adjectives as honest, forthright and dependable.

Bruce Van Blarcum
Theater

Usually raconteurs are vapid outside the realm of jokes: Corbitt Rushing is the exception . . . He has perspective not only upon the unexpected (the basis of much of his humor) but upon statesmancraft, politics, history, and law. In addition, he probably reads more of all kinds of things than any other faculty member. Try him; you'll like him. And listen for his guffaws at movies with little redeeming social value.

Mack Sturgill
Spanish

Edward J. Wiltrakis
Mathematics

Henry Funderburk combines tremendous energy with good old American "know-how".

Arthur Adams—"He's got it all together and knows where it's at."

Edward Hester
Economics

Ray Brackett
Psychology

Helen Matthews—Mrs. Matthews is a well liked educator who has had much experience in the public schools. She knows what she is teaching because she has "been there".

Madeline Nevins—"And God bless Joan of Arc and Antigone and Nora and Candida and Madeline . . ."

A meticulous scholar, Jack Teagarden drives himself hard but is gentle with his students. He never appears in class unprepared, never slights his duty to his students, goes "the extra mile" to see that everyone understands the concepts he presents and spends endless hours correcting papers with minute, helpful comments. Allen Johnson, who teaches with him, and is taught by him, is his most enthusiastic fan.

Henry Funderburk—concert punnest.

Frank P. Haggard
Religion and Philosophy

Madeline Nevins—She kicked the habit. So can you: Speak French!

Edward Hester—Fred Astair without savoir faire. Kind, gracious, does what he likes to do without a trace of excess ego. The "Compleat" economist.

Ralph James.—A deeply pious and orthodox Christian whose dedication to church work is only surpassed by his zeal to preserve and conserve the Christian tradition.

Frances Harrison
Mathematics

Gary Martin—Is this the face that launched a thousand ships?

Ralph James—Bright and energetic.

Helen Matthews
Education

Edward Hester—Serious, intense good-humored, down to earth. There is no drop-add in the game of life.

Mack Sturgill—One of the most consistently comfortable human beings alive. I could talk to him endlessly. His sense of balance is one of the things I greatly admire in him.

David Jones—The man with whom I would most like to tour the Mojave Desert. He would, needless to say, have plenty to talk about, and it all would be interesting.

Rexford Tucker—A ready wit—you might say a punsumate conster.

Arthur McCoy
Music

Edward Brandt—You should watch him playing with his kids—it's neat!

Vance Mizelle—A rare talent that needs a better showcase. I would use him in a PR capacity—actor, singer, director, and lecturer.

Edward Wiltrakis—A "minority" man with a majority of virtues.

Henry Funderburk—is a concerned educator, dedicated to high standards in teacher education and to excellence in elementary education.

Lionel Bishop
Mathematics

George Armstrong—A fascinating person to talk to on any subject.

Ray Brackett—Often times misjudged, but one who truly has the very best interest of this school at heart.

Jimmie Purser
Chemistry and Physics

We would like to thank the professors that cooperated with us in providing the copy that we have used here. These remarks were selected because we feel that they reflect the professors favorably. We hope that they will give you some insight into their personalities and perhaps help you to know them better.

All for one small checkered ball?

Eric Rundquist

They had a lot of bad "breaks". God doesn't like Wesleyan.

Cindy Trimm

The 1972 soccer team began as the best that I have worked with. We had experience, good speed, and great enthusiasm. We did, however, lack the proverbial, consistent scorer. An early season injury to our all-conference goalie hurt our morale and caught us unprepared.

An interesting statistic from this year's team was that even though we scored fewer goals than our opponents we did take more shots. Maybe next year we can get those shots going into the nets.

The season ended with the team very thinned out, but still enthusiastic and playing hard. They were a great group of men and one of Wesleyan's best soccer teams ever.

Head Coach Al Horne

I think according to what I see, and this year I didn't see much. They try like hell.

Wayne Souza

It was the best soccer team I've seen at Wesleyan.

Robert Rivers

The guys all play hard and the fans are out there to support them. That's what any sport is all about.

Chris Speelman

I think they should get new uniforms to increase spectator attendance.

Bobbi Wescott

It's fun to watch your friends whether they win or lose. It's also fun to get drunk with your athletically inclined friends the night before games. I guess that's what makes watching the game fun . . . you think about the night before and about all that alcohol being sweat out of them.

Tom Hardison

I didn't have any fun!!!

Tom Henderson

As always there was room for improvement. For some reason, despite good players, Wesleyan soccer has been unable to find a good winning team in a long time. We need to get it together.

David Smith

I only went to one game.

Good looking coach!

Nancy Mitchell

I think the team was very overrated!
Rick Westover

Well, it was too bad we were disqualified from the NCAA Tournament this year. U.C.L.A., watch out in '74!

Dr. Furd Morrison

I find it an improvement over the previous year's team.

Bobbi Wescott

What probably hurt the most was the turnover in players. By the end of the season only about half of the original team was still there. Injuries and personal problems did it. Recruiting should help us next year. By the way . . . . the statistician really did a good job.

Greg Williams

The season wasn't the best, but Pratt will soon prove his coaching abilities. The peanuts from Suffolk always come through.

Wanda Rivenbark

I think this year served as a learning year for the new coach and helped bring along some of the ballplayers. Next year should be a year for Wesleyan to be proud of.

Bob Lauranzon

The season was a disappointment to all of us, when considering the record; we feel that there was quite a bit of basketball learned that we hope will give us a solid foundation for a profitable season next year.

Head Coach Mike Pratt

There was a lot of enthusiasm within the team, but they just didn't get it together until the end of the season, which was too late!

Peggy Verkler

I think we basically have a good team, if we could just get it together.

Donald Williams

Peggy Verkler

Most underrated team on campus. We set every new record for the school this year. Had the same level of excellence as the golf and tennis teams.

Nick Lauranzon

The team is beginning to look good. Next year maybe Wesleyan will win three championships in one week.

Charlie Rogers

They were really a good team and they had a really good coach.

Ellen Godson

After four years we finally had a winning season, but once again we lost out in the tournament. Lynchburg was on top again, but we did beat them one match.

George Frick

They were super-hot!!! "Brack" is where its at!!!

Willie Mitchell

They had a fantastic coach and they did really well this year.

Donald Williams

I hope Bob Lauranzon did well.

Sterling Bodenhamer

Bowling is one of those sideline sports in which a few guys play their hearts out and nobody appreciates it or even bothers to go watch. For the most part the only spectators the bowling team had were "the wives".

Good Looking uniforms!

Martin Saunders

I had never been to a baseball game but went this year and thoroughly enjoyed it. There were a lot of people there to support the team also. The new uniforms are really pretty and you can definitely see our players.

Rebecca Rozier

They look like glow-in-the dark bananas in their new uniforms, but at least they won more this year than before. Maybe it was the boost they needed!

Donna Noell

I thought the pitcher did an outstanding job and deserved the award he received as most valuable player!

Nanci Wilson

The baseball team had their usually outstanding season but my favorite part was the expert scorekeeping by Philip (Mickey Mantle) Frazer.

Anonymous

I was very pleased with the development of the team. We lost numerous practice days due to bad weather; however the pitchers worked in games and gave us our strongest collective pitching staff. We played the best defense and had the most consistent hitting of any Wesleyan team. Closing out the season with four straight wins was the crowning enjoyment.

Head Coach Moe Bauer

With a determined and united effort the baseball team won games. Most of these wins were at the end of the season when the batting came around.

Will Alston

Wesleyan had a real good baseball team this year. The team was the best since the college opened, and at the close of the season they were getting better all the time. They also have a wonderful coach and I think they will be better next year.

Mr. Harper

Dr. Bauer deserves a better team than we've had in the past.

Dennis Custis

This year's baseball team had good personnel and a lot of ability.

Our golf team has done it again!

Elbert Wampler

Somebody finally took the lid off the hole in the tournament.

Bob O'Keef

Coach Scalf did a fantastic job with his team! Congrats to them all!

Nanci Wilson

It was a feat for this year's team to win the tourney again.

Dillard Dixon

I was very pleased with the results the golf team won from their work. The three top players were seniors and they all finished as champions.

Head Coach Don Scalf

A great coach who digs his players means that we have a very successful team for the future. Nice games boys!

Martin Saunders

The golf team didn't get the support that they needed. No-one ever heard a word of praise or complaint about the team, it was almost as if it didn't exist.

Sandy Pierce

I thought it was great that a Wesleyan team could capture its fourth championship in a row.

Neal Roper

The success of the NCW golf team this past year was the result of a good team effort—everybody pulling for everybody, plus the fact that Coach Scalf was very interested and contributed greatly.

Missy Bowers

They proved that they're number 1!

Cliff Asbury

They need cheerleaders.

John Sward

They are great! Not to mention their great-looking coach.

Peggy Verkler and Debbie Pearce

What can one say about a group of men who go undefeated for 27 games straight except "they're great!"

Robin Copley

It's a good feeling to know that you're number one.

Charlie Rogers

I thought they were great!

Dottie Brader

They were good due to the fact they play as individuals not as a team such as basketball.

Randy Scott

They should publicize the matches to the city. With such a great team, we should let people know about them.

Wayne Souza

What can I say about Mr. Saunders, he's from the Peanut Capital.

I enjoyed watching the tournaments.
Wanda Rivenbark

They should be better organized and have more participation.
Rick Westover

I was glad to see volleyball added to the program—too bad we didn't get to play the final match.

George Frick

Table tennis at NCWC is a very competitive sport. It involves a large segment of the campus population. This was shown in the number of participants in this year's tournament.

Chris Pollack

The girls' volleyball team tried really hard and had a good team. More amazons should try out for the team next year. Mrs. Edge is a good coach.

Ellen Godson

They give the students something to do. The girls need more participation in them. I think it is good to have them and it is a heap of fun.

Lynn Alston

It seems as though the participants want the program continued so why not. In B-ball and Volleyball, they should invest in some good referees. The Table Tennis tournament was excellently managed.

Wayne Souza

I thought it was great because the guys really got up for the games.

Tootie Peterson

They should encourage the players more.

John Sward

They should be given two uniforms—spring and winter.

Debbie Manning

They have great equipment!

Charlie Rogers

The squad put forth a lot of effort.

Margaret Ives

I never cheered before I came to Wesleyan, but I always thought of cheerleading as a means of showing the athletes how much one appreciated them. Apparently I was wrong because after I had cheered for a semester at Wesleyan I realized that some of the girls weren't interested in the sports but just the fact that they were cheering.

Tootie Peterson

They need a "little more pep in their step".

Willie Mitchell

They seemed to do a good job despite poor student participation.

Anne Tyndall

"The Cheerleaders"? It was a great movie!

Debbie Pearce

I was quite impressed with the quality of the squad this year. The girls were a lot more enthusiastic and really worked hard to make the squad one of the best that Wesleyan has ever had. The only regret that I have is the lack of school spirit which is seen in the stands at every athletic function. Overall, it was a fantastic year for the squad and I enjoyed it.

STUDENT LIFE

Orientation

I thought it was messed up by the rain. I was looking forward to the pool party. I enjoyed the dance; the rap session helped me a little bit.

John Conyers

I liked the luau. There was a lot of work put into it. The decorations were to the occasion. The singer was okay. I missed the only meeting where roll was called—when Dean A. spoke.

Sterling Bodenhammer

It was a waste of time. I was tired of listening to the Administration's bull. The tests were insignificant. There weren't enough parties. Freshmen felt separated from the rest of the student body. The food was enough to make you go home again.

Kevin Kilroy

Fine. I really thought it was pretty good. I enjoyed the talent shows and stuff. I thought it was good to have a chance to get to know everybody before classes started.

Bettie Garrick

I wish there could have been more rap sessions so we could get more questions answered. Everybody was shy. Maybe they should have been broken down into smaller groups. I liked the idea of having to wear a nametag.

Pam Barker

It was okay but I think they could have done things a little different.

Laura Kinne

Everything was exactly organized. They made me feel at home when I got here. Otherwise, I would have gone home.

Vicki Holland

Parent's Weekend

It's nice. It seems like the campus only gets repaired when the parents come. It is the only time the fountain works and our dorms are really clean.

"Brins"

It gives the parents a chance to see the college . . . and a chance for the students to clean their rooms.

Sue Moss

I liked it when I was a freshman. It is a waste of time for upperclassmen. Somehow parents lose their interest also.

Linda Murray

Parent's Weekend is a good idea. It gives parents a chance to see how their money is being spent.

Sue Thompson

The idea behind Parent's Weekend is fine in theory but somehow it isn't so good in practice. It should be a time when the parents enjoy themselves and see how things really are but it usually turns out that everybody puts on their plastic smiles and the parents go home thinking that Wesleyan is a "child's garden of delight" and very glad they sent us here and very glad that Parent's Weekend is over until next year.

Belinda Blake

I enjoy coming down and seeing all the different students.

The programs are set up nicely.

I like coming down to see my daughter.

Wesleyan Parents

Homecoming

Great!

Scott Logan

The best one we have had in the four years that I have been here.

Susan Hinton

Homecoming comes at a time when everyone is ready for a big weekend filled with fun, sports, and the thrill of competition.

Jimmy Smith

I liked it.
Enjoyed the Shrine Club.
Just plain fun!

Cindy Trimm

With a big smile on his face, Tommy nods his head in approval. Great!

Tom Henderson

I loved the entire weekend, especially the dance, but I think that there should be some type of activity on Friday night.

Lynn Alston

This is the weekend that everyone is ready to have a good time and party. I think that the social commission did a good job and I had a fabulous time for my last Homecoming.

Joann Harrell

The suspense of waiting to see who will be crowned queen is always a fun part of Homecoming, but for me the best part is being able to see those people I knew three years ago who are no longer in the vicinity.

Barbara Blanton

It would have been better if we had won the basketball game.

George Frick

SPRING

The people who planned it did a good job and the people who went had a good time. Let's do it again next year.

Donald Williams

I had a fantastic time. It was the only dance I went to and didn't take pictures.

Jane Gravely

The logic of why the social commission continues to plan various functions at the request of the student body escapes me. In the past two years the students said they wanted more than one function and they only attend the big one on Saturday night. Why the commission even bothers to take the time and trouble is beyond me.

Harlan Lewis

Between the pressure of secretly trying to make a dress Saturday afternoon and type an overdue term paper at the same time, I never got excited about the dance. In fact, I almost didn't even get there. But all the pressures and worries were worth it. The social commission did a great job and I was complimented on my dress.

Barbara Blanton

It rained.

Mary Lawrence

It was fun—I loved the bands.

Wanda Rivenbark

The Tams were fantastic—they made Spring Fling.

Robin Rider

I liked it considering that I don't like that kind of music. I really had a good time.

FLASH CADILLAC and the CONTINENTAL KIDS

Flash Cadillac was the most fun I've had since 1956.

Donald Williams

Really good. A rock and roll revival was a pleasant change. The idea of the rock band before Flash Cadillac to try to appeal to everyone's taste was pretty good.

Harlan Lewis

The concert was fun to go to if for no other reason than to see the students loosen up.

Jane Gravely

Flash Cadillac was obscenely funny. Their dress, motions, etc., were reminiscent of the late 1950's and the kind of music most of us first started listening to. The concert was the best in the four years that I have been here and a refreshing change from the kind of music prevalent today.

Barbara Blanton

Flash Cadillac was a welcomed change from the normal rock concert. They made it easy for me to forget the work piled up in the room and allow myself to have a good time.

George Frick

I personally don't think students enjoy concerts as much as they do show and dance. But I thought it was great fun.

Plays

Boyfriend

I had fun designing the sets for the "Boyfriend" and helping build them, and I think the actors had fun doing the show. I hope the audience enjoyed seeing the show as much as we enjoyed doing it.

Donald Williams

For the first time actors and technicians got to work in their own theater.

The "Boyfriend" was a good play but a little ambitious.

Mrs. Homes

"Boyfriend"—Mr. Kagey, how does one be a straight ham?

Jane Gravely

"Skin" had its ups and downs and I'll be the first to criticize something I work with, But I feel "Skin" was a good educational and theatrical experience.

Bob Thompson

"Skin of Our Teeth" had great acting, but I needed to see it at least five more times before I could begin to understand it.

George Frick

Julius Caesar

I liked the lighting effects of Julius Caesar. I thought the interpretation of the play was above the level of the viewers. They aren't ready for impressionism.

Pam Barker

It was like a new twist to an old recipe.

"Julius Caesar" gave most of the actors a chance to work with a style of scene and costume design they had never worked with before. It was fun working on a show done in expressionism.

Donald Williams

"Julius Caesar"—It was fun to learn a little about lighting. It was funny to see the show from behind.

Jane Gravely

"Julius Caesar" was well thought out and quite expressionistic, but was a real let-down to someone expecting a Shakesperian style production as I was.

George Frick

I think Caesar lost alot of people but I don't think it was lack of art, talent, energy or whatever. Admittedly, the gym is not a theater and from a theatrically technical point of view, is hard to work in. But I felt that some people were biased against the production because they didn't see what they expected to see.

Bob Thompson

The Doctor In Spite of Himself

The May Term play started out as "The Doctor In Spite of Himself" and ended up as "Bologne In Spite of Itself". It was a comedy of errors. Everything was happening. People were getting sick and hurt and everything. It was awful

Mrs. Barnes

May Term was a blast despite our high accident rate. I hope Wesleyan can continue to visit elementary schools. Some kids' total experience in theatre is television.

Bob Thompson

I think plays are one of the finest things
that happen around here.

I heard that the audience responded very well to the May Term play and my photographer said that all of the school children really enjoyed it.

Mrs. Homes

"The Bologne In Spite of Himself"—It was fun to watch—corny and lighthearted.

Jane Gravely

Performing Arts

The Tuscon Arizona Boys Chorus was pretty good. But taking the stage down was hell.

Charlie Rogers

Preservation Hall was just as good this year as it was last year. I enjoyed seeing Dean A. leading the parade again.

Ned Hill

The Tuscon Boys Chorus was very good and I enjoyed them. I think the students liked that kind of entertainment and Preservation Hall better than the other things which were offered in the series. But of course the college has to appeal to the wide range of interests in Rocky Mount.

Margaret Ives

I like Preservation Hall, and I liked the Tuscon Arizona Boys Chorus. The Eleo Pomare Dancers—yuck. For their art, they were good, but for this area and the students—not very good.

Mark Lambert

I hadn't ever seen anyone twirl a lariat in real life. I thought it was cool—better than any Roy Rogers show. When Preservation Hall was here, it was good to see the faculty actually enjoying themselves for once.

Barbara Blanton

I enjoyed Preservation Hall as much as the Ides of March concert last year.

Tim Chase

I liked the Cosmopolitans. The tenor was of excellent quality even if he did have a cold.

Jane Gravely

The Dancers, oh boy! That was a little too heavy for the people of Rocky Mount to handle. I mean people were walking out left and right.

Convocations

The Civilization series was the best semester of convocations since I've been here. Next year they should have Allstair Cooke's "America".

George Frick

Each year has been an improvement. And each year has the potential for further improvement.

Jane Gravely

Convocations bored me slam to death. I liked it better when people came to talk about pressing issues of the time. I would like to see the program return to the ecological problems, a subject that is of immediate concern to us all.

Harlan Lewis

The Civilization series was the best idea yet.

Donald Williams

Since I didn't have to go to convocations this year I went only about two or three times the whole year. But when I did go, I made sure it was during the Kenneth Clarke series. It was most enjoyable and informative.

Barbara Blanton

Convocations this year was interesting and informative, but they should not be required.

Steve Russell

Convocations, as usual, were boring for the most part. However, there were a few good ones, especially second semester. I thought the movies first semester were okay but after thirteen weeks it was putting me to sleep. I'm glad I don't have to go anymore.

Charlie Rogers

Honors

Convocation

Honors Convocation was the best I've been to in three years. I especially enjoyed Dr. Teagarden's speech.

Donald Williams

In some cases the description of the awards and people receiving them did not match. It seems like the only basis on which some of the awards were given was the highest grade point average. When the elements for which the award was based on were announced and then the winner, you had to wonder why they even bothered to incorporate all the other things like leadership, social participation in campus life, etc.

Harlan Lewis

What does a senior say about Honors Convocation—we deserved it? (Well, we did!) Dr. Teagarden's speech gets an A+.

Barbara Blanton

I thoroughly enjoyed Dr. Teagarden's speech and the message it conveyed. It was great to see my "Roomie" receive the President's Cup.

George Frick

That was pretty good. It was better than the rest.

Mary Lawrence

I enjoyed hearing Dr. Teagarden speak.

Student Government Association

Type: Elected body to provide services to the college community.

Services rendered the college:

Emergency Loan Fund
Supplement budgets of Social Commission, Pre-Law students, and sponsor events of other campus groups
Counseling referrals
Refrigerators

Projects sponsored:

Liberalising the open house rules
Cut out positions in the government which overlap and cause inefficiency
Honest communication with the deans
New breakfast hours
New games in the game room
New Muzak system in the cafeteria and snack bar
Purchased new furniture for the patio
Member of the National Student Lobby

I think we have achieved better understanding with our work through the Dean of Students. If we are to win any major changes the student body must make a greater sacrifice to assist in the work. Our student-faculty committees were used wisely.

Wilbert Harrison

I feel that we suffered from a bad case of over involvement. There are just too many unnecessary provisions in the constitution to give the student leaders the freedom to act in their behalf. This is true because many important positions are left unfilled. We made progress in the fact that there were fruitful and helpful discussions with many students. We have created the atmosphere where students now realize the difficulties of the SGA and may be willing to give time to it.

Rich Kirschner

Circle K

Type: Service to campus and community

Founded: International founded in 1947, Wesleyan club chartered in 1963

Sponsor: Kiwanis International

Services rendered the college:

Helping with Orientation
Freshman visitation weekends
Parent's Weekend
Other on campus projects

Projects sponsored this year:

Rebuilding outdoor chapel
Multiple Sclerosis project
Horse Show
Talent Show
Canned food and clothing drive
Year long project with mental patients at Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro
Paper drives for recycling
Helping with blood drives
Visiting nursing homes in Rocky Mount

Circle K is a very worthwhile organization providing great opportunity to meet new friends and gain experience.

Leslee Nance

The club for the first time has made some genuine contributions in the community and on the campus. I hope that all the success of this year will serve merely as a beginning for more dedicated and involved service in future years.

Ned Hill

This year Circle K has proven to be a meaningful organization with outreaching projects to help the underprivileged and multiple sclerosis patients as a whole. Circle K is a club which offers the individual the chance to help people. It has the potential to become bigger and better as the years progress.

Randy Scott

Circle K at Wesleyan this year has met the challenge of man to man communication and interaction, bringing about a new human dignity.

Richard Sinclair

Circle K is sharing and caring in action. It has made great strides in reaching out . . . now we even have female members.

Bess Curtis

The Circle K International theme this year was 'Reach Out'. The Wesleyan club transcended that idea by not only reaching out to help people through our projects but the relationships which were established will leave an indelible mark on many of the club members. We have shown that human relations are among the most valued treasures.

Keith Marsden

Compass Club

Type: Service

Founded: 1969

Sponsor: Pilot Club International

Services rendered to the college:
Hostess for coffee hour and decorating the bulletin board for Parent's weekend
Provide rooms for other chorus groups
Make curtains for one of the women's dorms

Projects sponsored this year:
Intense visitation and correspondence with members of Guardian Care
Collecting money for "Meals for Millions"
Pilot Club presentation
Party for mentally retarded children

Compass Club is a good way for girls to get together and serve the community.

Molly Pollock

Compass Club is built on the idea of direct involvement with those people who need attention. The small and the personal action takes priority. I think we have achieved that goal. There are twelve members now and they are members in every sense of the word. Their actions and words are in balance. There are no dead logs. Unified and alive, we do not seem, we are. That is one of the highest compliments I could give to any one person or group.

Marjorie Stevens

The Compass Club is a worthwhile organization because it serves the community of Rocky Mount. It also helps the Wesleyan campus in special affairs and is always open to assist the rest of the student body.

Claire Collins

Wesleyan Singers

Type: Mixed chorus open to all which meets three times a week for one hour credit.

Founded: The first year of the college.

Services rendered the college: We perform free of charge three times a year providing the students with Pops, Christmas, and Spring Concerts.

On the whole, I feel the students in the group are genuinely concerned and would be more so if the apathy of those not involved was not so great.

Judi Vilagos

It would be excellent if the types of music were spread out through the whole year.

Robin Boehm

It is a group for those who like to sing and have fun. You do not have to be a great singer to join, just give it your best.

Mark Lambert

Wesleyan Singers offers the students a chance to prove they are capable of producing a beautiful piece of music. They also have a chance to get involved and get rid of some of Wesleyan's apathy.

Myra Dean

If done properly, Wesleyan Singers could be a professional group with everyone producing their best whether they were a good singer or not. Instead, everything is carried on with such a "plow through it" attitude that everyone gives only one half of what they could. Wesleyan Singers could be an organization students would be proud to belong to. Instead, it is an "easy hour" organization.

Debbie Piifer

Chamber Singers

Type: An auditioned extra-curricular activity for those students who enjoy singing.

Founded: At the beginning of the college.

Services rendered the college: We perform in the Christmas Concert and the Pops Concert. We represent the college by performing for town organizations. Example: Kiwanis Club, Methodist Youth Rally in Jacksonville, N. C.

If the members of Chamber Singers and the director would get serious about the group, they could gain the prestige they have had in the past. I have been a member of the group since my first semester and it has been declining since that time. It is too bad that a group with such great potential has to be held back because of the lack of professionalism of all concerned.

Debbie Pifer, Steve Williams

Chamber Singers is an extra-curricular activity that could afford talented music students a chance to further their repertoire in small vocal ensemble. First of all, I find fault in the name because we do not sing chamber music, we sing popular music. Secondly, I find an unenthusiastic attitude within the director which has rubbed off on the members of the group. I honestly feel that if this attitude among all the members of the group was reversed, the sound of the group would improve 100%. Professionalism is what we should strive for and until this attitude is changed, professionalism can never be accomplished.

Christine Scott

Chi Beta Phi

Type: National Honorary Science Fraternity

Founded: 1969—Alpha Omicron Chapter

Services rendered the college: This year we have begun a tutoring service for area high school students having difficulties in math, chemistry, biology, and physics. Proceeds from this tutoring service and other fund raising projects go toward our newly established scholarship fund awarded annually to a deserving science major.

Projects sponsored this year:

Initiated science scholarship fund

Tutoring service

Raffle to raise money for the scholarship fund

Sponsored guest lecturers

For the first time in the short history of our fraternity, we are doing something worthwhile for the college and the community. I am confident that the science fraternity will be even better in the future.

David Cole

Chi Beta Phi has the potential of being a great service organization. However, its future depends upon the active participation of the members.

Rosanne Bright

It is more interesting than it was. We seem to be doing more than in the past and getting more accomplished. I feel that the members are interested in what they are doing and in getting things accomplished. Things are definitely looking up with our scholarship program and our tutoring program.

Terry Everette

It is the only discipline oriented fraternity on the NCWC campus and is valuable as a means of communicating between the science departments.

David Smith

Omicron

Delta

Kappa

Type: National honor society made up of those persons demonstrating exemplary character and superior scholarship and leadership

Founded: 1914 at William and Mary College, Wesleyan circle started with the Activists and ODK was chartered here in 1972

Services rendered the college: We are not a service organization, however we do serve and represent those outstanding students on campus.

Projects sponsored this year: The annual bloodmobile for the Red Cross on campus. We sponsor the annual competition for the organization that produces the most donors.

We strive for and attempt to promote and recognize good scholarship and leadership.

Wayne Souza

It was a great honor to be tapped for membership in ODK. I really believe that the union of scholarship and leadership for which the society strives clearly separates its members from those of any other organization on campus.

George Frick

Membership in ODK is a lasting honor for any student at Wesleyan.

David Smith

I feel it's a worthwhile organization which holds a high position on the Wesleyan campus.

Dennis Custis

Alpha Delta Chi

Type: Social Fraternity

Founded: Beta Chapter founded 1965, Chartered by N.C. Wesleyan in 1967

Services rendered the college: Being a social fraternity we render no services as such, however, we do quite a bit of partying which adds to the campus social life.

Projects sponsored this year: Parties, parties, and more parties!!!

We're the only people on campus that know how to really party.

Carlyle Taylor

What can you say when you're the best.

Charlie Rogers

"Chi blows!!!".

Tom Henderson

It's worthwhile.

Larry Foster

We're the king of the three A's:
Athletics, Academics, and Asses.

Jack Morrison

Once you're in it, you'll never forget it.

Elliot Harrell

It is outstanding in its field.

Richard Sinclair

Nu Gamma Phi

Type: Social Fraternity

Founded: January 19, 1967

Services rendered the college: The fraternity tries to promote a fraternal and social atmosphere among the men of N.C. Wesleyan College.

Projects sponsored this year: Maintenance and refinishing classrooms

Being a brother of Nu Gamma Phi is an experience that every man should have an opportunity to witness. Fraternalism is one of the most rewarding experiences I've had at Wesleyan.

Wayne Souza

A Phi is a man who prides himself in being number one in everything. That is what all Nu Gamma Phi brothers have in common.

Gary McLaughlin

One of the most meaningful experiences of my college career.

Jeff Hoagland

When there is a series of organizations in one place such as Wesleyan College, I feel that being a part of the best is a great honor. Nu Gamma Phi is the most outstanding.

John Proffitt

Nu Gamma Phi is a truism in a world of falsehoods.

Tim Chase

In the search for self identity, the summit is attained when one finds himself with Nu Gamma Phi.

H. W. Whitley, Jr.

A brother of Nu Gamma Phi is a man who strives for perfection in everything and meets a challenge by emerging from it triumphantly.

Scott Logan

Pi Epsilon

Type: Service and Social Sorority

Founded: 1968

Services rendered the college:

Usher at functions of the college
Day care center for faculty's and day student's children
Decorate cafeteria at holidays, etc.
Participated in Parent's Weekend
Bishop's Booster Club

Projects sponsored this year:

Nursery
Easter egg hunt
Open parties

Pi Epsilon is one of the best things that has ever happened to me during my college career. By being in the sorority, I had to keep up my grades, thus working hard on academics. It gives a girl a sense of belonging while at Wesleyan, but it also enables you to keep your individuality and appreciate and respect the other girls as individuals within the group.

Rebecca Rozier

A Pi Epsilon sister is found anywhere and everywhere and being a service-social sorority, we're found doing anything. We are a close sisterhood but we pride ourselves in being individualists.

Susan Gillis

A Pi Epsilon sister connotes one of honest concern for fellow students, and devotion to service activities as well as enthusiasm for social functions. We wholeheartedly represent an active body of women within an educational community.

Anne Carroll

Contrary to popular opinion, we do not drink tea!!!!!!

Mary Anne Brinser

Sigma Omega

Type: Social and Service Fraternity

Founded: January 31, 1971

Services rendered the college:

Ushering at concerts
Service projects around campus
Painted the stage of Garber Chapel
Painted third floor Edgcombe

Projects sponsored this year:

A rock concert
A basketball marathon for the Heart Fund
A March of Dimes Walk for Mankind

Many diversified talents are found within Sigma Omega. Our different interests all come together in brotherhood. That's what we're all about.

Brandt Bechtold

In the ordered life of man, it is his nature to form bonds with other men. These bonds in the highest form are known as a brotherhood.

Mark Lambert

Sigma Omega is not just an organization, it's an experience. The brothers and the activities all come together in an experience that must be lived to be appreciated.

Marty Martindale

Sigma Omega is one of the few organizations on campus that has a purpose, knows where it is going, and has fun getting there.

Bob O'Keff

This year, through service projects and social events, we have created a strong sense of brotherhood among guys that differ in life but unite in a strong brotherhood. With this feeling of concern for one another, we have the potential to grow.

Randy Scott

Sigma Phi Delta

Type: Social Sorority

Founded: February 15, 1971

Services rendered the college: Our main service to the college is to provide young women a chance to develop close friendships and a cooperative and tolerant attitude through many varied social functions and work projects. Another service is the provision of social functions open to the entire college community.

Projects sponsored this year: We have sponsored several open parties and many functions involving only the girls in the sorority. We sold cokes at home soccer games and sponsored doughnut and bake sales. As an annual project, we made and delivered Christmas cards to residents of Guardian Care Nursing Home. We also exhibited our entertaining skills in the Circle K Talent Show in March. The highlight of our year's activity was a beach party at Atlantic Beach.

I think that the organization has obviously carried out the purposes for which it was founded. I have grown along with the sorority and it has helped me become close to the rest of the girls whereas I probably wouldn't have without it.

Joann Harrell

We enjoy partying together and working together as a sorority.

Robin Rider

Sigma Phi Delta is an organization made up of girls that work, play and live together. When a girl is a member of this organization, she has many close friendships and she will take them with her for the rest of her life along with many fond memories.

Ellen Lurette

Sooner Club

Type: Non-chartered outlaw social club

Founded: 1970 sometime in January at St. Mary's Junior College when some girl asked Neal Roper why he was in Raleigh and he answered, "We'd sooner be anywhere than Wesleyan."

Sponsor: Our mothers and fathers who work long hours to insure that we have enough money to buy beer, take road trips, and keep up our images of Southern gentlemen

Services rendered the college: We travel far and near spreading joy and pumping up the reputation of our beloved college. We also donate money to the general college fund by way of parking tickets and library fines.

Projects sponsored this year: Uncountable road trips to girls schools, the GGO, Camptown Races, Tarrytown Mall Farm Equipment Show, Nash Tech, and R. Mt. Senior High. We also sponsor weekly poker games with all proceeds going to our favorite charity, ourselves.

A Sooner Club member is someone who wishes he could find his fingerprints somewhere, maybe on a corpse, and say, "you're it".

Cliff Asbury

Our description: Male or reasonably so, white but not lily white, and usually deep red.

Doug Taylor

Sooners are only seen going and coming.

Elliot Harrell

We are all xenomorphic individuals who improve the sign in the Esso men's room. We put beards on fashionable ladies selling soap, fix up her flat chest like that of a chorus girl, and leave a beer can as a memento of affection.

Tom Hardison

ASPECTS

In its purest form, Aspects is the composite profile of the people whose work appears in the magazine. Unfortunately, this ambitious goal is rarely attained.

More often than not, we at Aspects lose sight of this objective by gliding into the heights of euphoric panic. This, of course, is done to ease our guilt, which is the total effect of our proclivity to procrastinate in almost everything that needs to be done.

However, this should not be discouraging to those who have the slightest inclination to become a member of this elite corps. Rather, it should foment a burning desire in all who delight in working under unfavorable odds. Also, by every member of the staff losing his objectives, an almost Hegelian effect is produced since the totality of everyone's "non-objectives" makes for a new objective. Of course, this new objective is, without question, completely unrelated to anything that the staff, either collectively or individually, has ever felt.

Therefore, it is easy to visualize how this controlled spontaneity, once projected to the public, is extremely beneficial to the community as a whole. It is also important to note that the best way to produce this effect and capture the reader's attention is to use a subtle approach. For example, last year we used the "mistake" method which is known to literary magazines the world over. This cunning technique is characterized by the use of misspelled words, credit mistakes, blank pages, and double exposures. Add to this the fact that no two covers of the magazine are alike and the goal of the mistake method has been achieved. That goal, which was just recently synthesized, is the fact that each reader has a different issue, making him think that it was made especially for his pleasure.

Although space does not permit any further discussion, it is hoped that the preceding has helped to clarify what Aspects is and what it represents. If this fact can be grasped, the truth will surely be known, and truth is the very essence of Aspects.

The Decree

A FRESH LOOK

By TOM HARDISON ~

Strange beginnings usually make for strange ends. Ol' Charlie is probably the first Decree editor not to be elected. And I suppose I am the first associate editor, by administrative measures, who was not supposed to be anything. And Ol' Davenport, the third full-time salaried staff member, is the first ad man who didn't know how to lay out ads. And that was the whole staff. I suppose the Decree with the staff problems it had, more than any other part of student life, reflects the new student attitude: "leave me alone and I'll leave you alone". Nobody wants to do anything for free.

We did pretty well, really, for a cast of three. We came out usually on time first semester, relying heavily on the Public Relations people in Pearsall and Steady Eddy letting us stay in the office after 11:00 pm. We got into little mini-battles with the Student Government officials. That kept things interesting. And we were, quite by accident many will say, a pretty objective source for news. It was our editorials that always aroused suspicion. The business office kept up with my column, if no one else did, and we pretty well got by first semester.

Now, second semester is when the fun started! Money, the old adversary of all student services, kept a growing staff (now up to four) shackled. We couldn't come out every other week. The Administration had cut the budget, printing costs had risen, and Ol'Davenport wasn't having much luck with the banks or Tarrytown. Production was more or less stopped except for a few days once a month, and thus people quit worrying about walking into the Decree office and being asked, "Do you type?" That's when the Ol' Decree office became again a focal point for activity like in the days of Bruce, Marshall, Julie, and

Ed. The Decree office became a neat place for Chris to study Psych., a good place to meet people, a fantastic place for pledges to serve lunch, and it became a quiet, night-time spot to move my portable t.v. when the electricity was bumming out the picture in my dorm room. It was a most friendly atmosphere for match fights between Ol' Charlie and me, and was a disaster for the S.U. maids. It became a great place for lectures on cleanliness. It was, in its sadder second semester moments an austere and obvious place to sit, surrounded by friends and acquaintances, to sincerely lament the total decay of student run activities. This always led to heated debate about why nothing went on anymore at Wesleyan. We threw around ideas about the lack of communication between administration and student body, and between students and student "leaders". We wondered why those enrolled here now are not a higher priority than new buildings and swimming pools. Now, if we could have had just a few more issues we might have been able to make somebody understand our midnight sessions. I wish we could have aroused the student body a little more along these lines.

It became, this sterile second semester, a meeting place for the Ol' Sooner Club and office space for the Social Commission. Once a month it became a meeting ground for several students who had not lost sight of what the office was for. We never lost sight, really, or even came close to it. Ol' Charlie was, as many know, completely dedicated to his position. I was too, I suppose, but for different reasons. There were less of us, the staff, there was less money and so there were less issues. It all makes sense. But the most important thing we ever did was debate the problems of Wesleyan. If we had only printed those, perhaps now we would have a better idea of what the Decree, among other student activities, needs to do differently . . . so some students will still be here in about ten years to make that dedicational dive into the indoor swimming pool.

Dissenter

In keeping with the trend started last year in the Dissenter, we have had the people at Wesleyan write the copy for this book. To me this style of annual will be remembered long after the others are stored away.

George Frick

An empty office

A dark darkroom with an orange light weakly shining

A disappearing pile of photographs

A growing pile of lay-out sheets

"Do you have the pictures yet?"

"No, tomorrow." every so often

"Smile!" or "Hey!" . . . click

It was an experience I'll not forget very soon. Thanks.

Jane Gravely

Hard work, co-operation, and a lot of headaches go into the making of a yearbook. I feel that the Dissenter this year will be the best ever.

Dianne Williams

This year, we have tried to represent more of the student body by adding a few clubs which recently have not been included in the yearbook. Although we had a fairly inexperienced staff, I hope we have produced a book that everyone can and will enjoy.

Barbara Blanton

The Dissenter for 1973 is probably more like the Decree this year than ever before. The newspaper ran on a staff of three and sometimes four and this year's Dissenter I'm sorry to say was about on the same level. George and Barbara and a handful of others worked diligently through the year and on after graduation and deserve the thanks of every student at Wesleyan. The book is really worthwhile.

Charlie Rogers

May Term

May Term 1973 required more work than the two previous ones combined. I must say that applying mathematics to economics was not my idea of a May Term.

Burton Sachs

I enjoyed my May Term more this year than any in the past. It was quite interesting. This was made possible by our professor, Mr. Rushing. It was not what I expected and I was glad about that! It had more to do with court cases concerning obscene books, films, magazines, etc. I hope that next year there will be more May Terms as interesting as this was.

Cindy Trimm

There's only one thing to say about Human Sexuality—it should be a required course for all college students.

Belinda Blake

I think the Western Man May Term trip to Europe was a good way to culminate four years of study. It wasn't a bad way to earn four more hours and because of Dr. Johnson and Dr. Teagarden it was worthwhile not only from the standpoint of a tourist but also from that of a student.

Barbara Blanton

I think we've outlived it in many respects. There are many ideas that are extremely good but there are also many that are giveaways. In the students' minds, May Term is play term. What does it prove—that education can be fun? It has been improved a great deal. We finally proved the fact that one could teach a regular course during the month. This makes it fit into the regular school schedule with more significance.

Do You Remember . . .

The pictures seen here represent the years 1969-1970 and 1972-1973, the freshman and senior years of the Class of '73. These years were marked by transition and change not only in the people, but in the college as well. We have seen many customs completely phased out while new ones were added; we have seen many faces go and not as many new ones come; and we have seen many of those who lasted until graduation mature, while we wonder if others will ever grow up. It seems rather difficult to sum up in a few lines four years such as the ones we have spent at Wesleyan. But perhaps there is no better way to relate these years than through the following pictures and phrases.

. . . having to obtain 100 signatures?

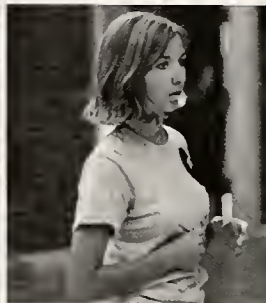

. . . Hell Week?

. . . a $2050 tuition?

. . . a Beanie Dance?

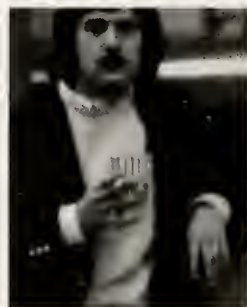

. . . paneling the poolroom?

. . . a Spring Formal?

. . . a crowded poolroom?

. . . a ping-pong table in Nash?

. . . May Term at the Quality Courts Pool?

... women's dorms closing at 10:30?

... no bare feet in the cafeteria?

... championship golf and tennis teams?

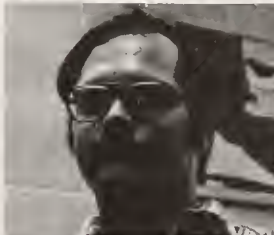

... a winning haseball team?

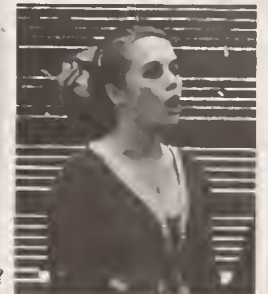

... a finished patio?

... K-Mart being built?

When this copy is finished the 1973 Dissenter will be put to press. Being editor has not been an easy job, but then when I accepted this position I didn't think it would be.

In my opinion, the Dissenter has improved each year since I've been at Wesleyan during a time when many college annuals are on the decline. Since we did not hear much criticism of last year's book I decided to again use the interview style of copy. I personally think this makes for a far more interesting book than we have had in the past. To me, yearbooks are an integral part of a college career since memories only last so long but a book can last forever.

I would like to thank everyone who has helped with this year's Dissenter, in particular Barbara Blanton and Jane Gravely without whose help and support this book could not have been assembled, and G. L. Coleman, photographer for the introduction and graduation.

George W. Frick
